

17th November 2011, Berlin
EuroDRG Final Conference

Results and Policy Implications

08:00 – 09:00 Registration

09:00 – 10:30 DRGs in Europe: Moving towards transparency, efficiency and quality in hospitals?

- Understanding DRGs in Europe. The EuroDRG project (Reinhard Busse)
 - The development of European patient classification systems (Conrad Kobel)
 - What do we know about the impact of DRGs on quality and efficiency? (Zeynep Or)
 - Discussion & Launch of the EuroDRG book (Miriam Wiley)
-

10:30 – 11:00 Coffee break

11:00 – 12:30 European DRG systems – how they work and perform for ten episodes of care (e.g. appendectomy, acute myocardial infarction, birth/ delivery, breast cancer, cholecystectomy, hip implant, stroke)

- Patient classification and DRG-based payments in Europe (Wilm Quentin)
 - The ability of DRG systems to explain variations in resource consumption (Andrew Street)
 - The relationship of quality and costs in European hospitals (Unto Häkkinen)
 - Discussion (Reinhard Busse)
-

12:30 – 14:00 Lunch

14:00 – 15:00 Panel discussion – Implications for Europe

Implications and conclusions of the EuroDRG project for the EU and collaboration among member states, e.g.: Is it worth the effort for each country to develop its own system? How to collaborate in DRG development and usage? Which system would best suit European patients?
(Moderator: Josep Figueras, Panelists: Christopher Schmidt, Martti Virtanen, Luca Lorenzoni, Maria Swiderek, Peter C. Smith)

15:00 – 15:15 Coffee break

15:15 – 16:15 Panel discussion – Implications for countries considering DRGs

Implications and conclusions of the EuroDRG project for hospital payment reforms in countries considering the introduction of a DRG system, e.g.: What are the preconditions? Which system to choose? How to begin? What are the pitfalls to be avoided?
(Moderator: John C. Langenbrunner, Panelists: Sevil Salakhutdinova, Yingxu Zhao, Gergana Pavlova, Predrag Djukic)

16:15 – 16:30 Concluding remarks

Venue: NH Hotel Berlin-Friedrichstrasse, Berlin, Germany

NH Hotel Berlin-Friedrichstrasse
Friedrichstraße 96
10117 Berlin
+49 30206207115